

"A Theatre For Dreamers" book events: Updated Terms and Conditions for refunds as of June 2nd 2020.

1. All tickets are valid for the corresponding venues for the re-scheduled dates below.
2. The hardback book "A Theatre For Dreamers" signed by Polly Samson and the photo signed by David Gilmour and Polly Samson will have been sent out during the week of March 30th to existing ticket holders and to any additional ticket purchasers for the September shows up to May 24th 2020.

Thereafter any new purchasers will receive the book and photo on the night of the re-scheduled shows in June 2021 (ID and ticket required). Re-scheduled dates are;

June 25th (Friday) Manchester, Royal Northern College of Music
26th (Saturday) Birmingham, Town Hall
28th (Monday) London Central Hall Westminster

3. Refund requests must be made to the point of purchase by the purchaser.
4. For existing ticket holders, any requests for a full refund after March 30th 2020 and up until August 10th 2020 will require the book and photo to be returned to the following address:

One Fifteen, 1, Globe House, Middle Lane Mews, London N8 8PN.

Any returns MUST be in pristine condition ie no damage or marks on the book and/or photo and include the ticket order reference number. Proof of postage would be required for tracking purposes. The return postage is at ticketholders cost.

5. For any existing ticket holders who, after March 30th 2020 and up until August 10th 2020, are unable to attend the re-scheduled date yet wish to keep the book and photo, the refund will be the total ticket price minus the £12.99 book price, postage and packing plus VAT on all costs including book.
6. Any additional correspondence to be emailed to enquiry@onefifteen.com